

Colour in these butterflies

And why not draw some of your own too?

L. STEWART 2016

What kind of garden would your tiger live in?
Draw what you think this would look like for a chance to win one of ten signed books and a tote bag!

All you have to do is draw your garden in the space above with all the other animals that you think might live there with your Tiger.

Send your entry to us at:
There's a Tiger in the Garden World Book Day Competition,
Frances Lincoln Children's Books,
74 – 77 White Lion Street,
London, N1 9PF

Alternatively you can email it to: Christopher.Ransom@quarto.com
Competition closes on the 31st May 2017

UK residents only. No purchase necessary. Entries received after the closing date 31st May 2017 cannot be entered into the competition. Frances Lincoln Children's Books cannot take responsibility for pictures lost or damaged in the post or return competition entries once the winner has been announced. There is no cash alternative to the prize offered. Frances Lincoln Children's Books reserves the right to use the winner's image and resulting prize on its social media channels.

Frances Lincoln
Children's Books