

British Values at Kilburn Grange School

Mutual Respect:

- The school behaviour policy promotes mutual respect and tolerance;
- The school rule WE CARE and value 'collaborate' helps children to understand the importance of respect, treating everyone fairly and with kindness and care;
- Children learn about the importance of respect and collaboration in PSHE and during assemblies;
- PE lessons support the importance of fair play.

Individual Liberty:

- Children are encouraged to make their own choices and are responsible for their own choices;
- Children can express our opinions, ideas, likes and dislikes as long as it isn't hateful or against the British Values;
- Children learn about responsibilities and rights in Skills for Life lessons and during assemblies;
- Children are encouraged to develop their talents, skills and interests.

Democracy:

- The school council representatives are democratically voted in by their peers;
- The school council meet regularly and discuss matters that affect them, consider improvements and support fundraising activities;
- The children can express their opinions through class discussions, surveys, voting and writing;
- The school behaviour policy reinforces fairness and collaboration.

Tolerance of All Faiths and Beliefs:

- The school is proud of its diversity as staff and families belong to many faiths and represent many cultures and nationalities;
- Children learn about and celebrate different faiths, cultures and nationalities in RE and during assemblies;
- The school value 'collaborate' helps children understand and respect each other's differences, ideas and cultures;
- Children go on trips and visitors come to the school regularly to help children broaden their cultural experiences.

Rule of Law:

- Children learn about the importance of rules, laws and responsibilities, as well as rewards and consequences;
- The school rule WE CARE and value 'collaborate' helps children to understand that we treat others fairly and with kindness and care;
- The Peace Pathway helps children to reflect on their choices, solve their problems fairly and to take responsibility for their actions;
- The parents and community such as the police help children to learn about behaviour and safety.
